

CS101 Creation Science 101

This is a biblical and scientific study of creation with a focus on the age of the earth. This course researches the scientific evidence that the earth is young and that the Bible is scientifically accurate. The big bang theory is examined in detail. Also thoroughly addressed is how the environment of the original creation differs from ours today: how it allowed men to live to be over 900 years old, how it allowed for the production of huge plants, and how it provided conditions favorable for dinosaurs to thrive.

The course is videotaped in live classroom settings over a ten-week period (about 12 hours). The video course contains five DVDs (two lessons per DVD) and a CD from which you can print the quizzes, seminar notebook, homework book, and the final exam. When taken for credit, a 750-word-minimum written synopsis is required after reading one of the following books: Scientific Creationism by Henry Morris, The Young Earth by John Morris, Panorama of Creation by Carl Baugh, Bones of Contention by Marvin Lubenow, Buried Alive by Jack Cuzzo, or After the Flood by Bill Cooper.

The instructor is Dr. Kent Hovind, PhD, of Creation Science Evangelism in Pensacola, Florida. The purchase of this course does NOT automatically enroll you in the course for credit. If you will be taking the class for credit, you will need to print off the enrollment form from the CD and return it with your $25.00 processing fee (per student). A certificate is issued upon successful completion of the credited course.

Dear Student:

Thank you for purchasing our CS 101 course. This course will cover the material on Dr. Hovind's Creation Seminar Series Parts 1a, 1b, and 2 in much greater detail than in the regular seminar. We hope this class will be a blessing to you and will draw you closer to the Lord.

Included in this course are five DVDs and a CD from which you can print the quizzes, Seminar Notebook, homework book, final exam, and answer keys. Each DVD includes two class periods for a total of ten sessions.

To complete the course, begin by watching the DVDs, filling in the homework answers, and taking the quizzes. Please take each of the quizzes at the appropriate time as indicated in the quizzes' instructions. Note that there are only eight quizzes for CS 101. The first quiz is to be taken after lesson two, and there is no quiz after lesson ten. After you have completed the lessons, print and take your final exam. You will be responsible for grading all of your quizzes and the final exam.

If you will be taking the class for credit, you will be required to read one of the following books and write a 750-word-minimum synopsis (summary) of the book. Begin the synopsis with a sentence indicating that you have read the book in its entirety. Each of the books is available through our ministry or at your local Christian bookstore. Creation Science Evangelism will be grading your synopsis and returning it to you with your certificate of completion. You will need to print off the enrollment form from the CD and return it with a $25.00 processing fee (per student) along with your synopsis. Feel free to call us if you have any questions as you study.

1. Item #406 Scientific Creationism by Henry Morris
2. Item #440 The Young Earth by John Morris
3. Item #4038 Panorama of Creation by Carl Baugh
4. Item #410 Bones of Contention by Marvin Lubenow
5. Item #449 Buried Alive by Jack Cuzzo
6. Item #467 After the Flood by Bill Cooper

In order to obtain college credit, you must present the certificate to the college in which you are enrolled and see if they will accept it for credit. We pray that God will bless you as you study the wonders of God's creation.
